

Bring it on 2013

Mama Africa Christmas Angels

Last year, we once again had the great honour of adorning the windows of Spilhaus. The 70 year company, which specializes in high end designer home ware really liked our 2012 Christmas range, Christmas in Africa, and asked us to adapt one of the hanging decorations to a standing angel and so our Mama Africa Angel was born. Having our designs stand amongst world famous brands like Alessi, Ritzenhoff and Swarovski was a dream come true. Thanks Spilhaus for a great order!

Fresh Produce

Our beautiful beaded apples have been so popular that we have designed a few more fruits and vegetables to compliment them. So far we have added pears, mangos and peppers to the range. Last year we also created a small range of fruit keyrings for one of our valuable clients, pictures and prices of which are available on request.

Farewell Lion & Taxi

Also last year, two of our very favorite pieces were sold to international buyers. Both pieces had been with us for a couple of years and we had grown very attached to them. Our Lion masterpiece was bought by a private British collector and now lives in London and our beloved Yebo Mzantsi Taxi was sold to a New York based family. We hope both pieces will bring their new respective owners years of pleasure.
